Fewer Administrative Headaches

Stop struggling with the piles of forms, red-tape and regulations that never seem to go away! Being an employer today is not easy. Business owners are plagued with complex reams of government regulations and reporting requirements; not to mention the hassles of payroll, taxes, and workers' comp claims, benefits administration and more. Are you running your business, or is it running you? Wipe the piles off your desk. Let Impact Solutions be your cure for all of those employment related headaches.

Significant Bottom-Line Savings

Save 10%, 20%, even 30% on your total employment and insurance related costs! That's dollars saved that go straight to your business' bottom-line. So you would need to increase volumes by many times this amount to generate that kind of take-home-pay impact. How does Impact Solutions do it? Simple. Large scale buying power, around the clock focus on controlling costs, plus our unique experience and expertise combine to save you and your business big dollars right away, and even more year after year.

Renewed Focus on Core Business

Get back to the days of spending time on growing your business! That's the best way for you to grow it. Do you feel like you're spending more time pushing paper than serving customers and creating new products and services? You're not alone. Small and mid-sized businesses spend as much as XX% of their time in low value, administrative chores. Just think what better things you could do with that kind of time. Let Impact Solutions push paper, and get back to why you got started in business in the first place.

Stable and Quality Organization

Attract and retain the high-caliber staff needed to set your business apart from the competition! That's tough to do in today's tight labor market. You need to offer employees comprehensive, topnotch benefits packages, including 401(k) plan and pretax deductions. How can your business afford these benefits? Impact Solutions provides fully insured, Fortune 500 type benefits with generous choices and affordable premiums. Let our buying power help you build the organization you need to compete.

Reduced Employment Liability

Shelter you and your business from the full brunt of employment related lawsuits! The damages awarded in just one discrimination or harassment lawsuit can ruin most businesses. And ignorance of law is no defense. Ironically, most lawsuits could have been avoided by taking some fundamental precautions and knowing exactly how to respond when problems do arise. Impact Solutions' human resources service gives you piece of mind by bringing these precautions and responses to your business.
